Emerging Talent Programme

Eoin Rhodes and Cian O'Donoghoe were recently selected for the Under 17 Regional Emerging Talent Programme in Waterford while Sean Duffy and Thomas O'Connor were selected for the Under 15 Regional Emerging Talent Programme.

The players to take part in the County Emerging Talent Programme were also selected over the last few months. John Grace, Anthony O'Connor and Joseph Lawal will take part on the Under 12 Programme, Thomas O'Connor will represent the club on this years' Under 14 Kennedy Cup Squad, Sean Duffy was selected for the Under 15 team while Jack Foran (since injured) and Eoin Cummins were chosen for the Under 16 Programme.

Best wishes are extended to Jack Foran, who was unfortunate to aggravate his knee injury so soon after returning from a long lay off and had to undergo an operation to clear up the problem. I'm sure everyone connected with the club can't wait to see Jack back in Celtic colours in the near future. Jack is an incredibly dedicated young man, who has fought through the pain barrier to recover from this serious injury and we have no doubt this commitment will reap the reward it deserves.

January Schoolboys Results Update

- U10s entertained a depleted Stoney Rovers at home and duly emerged with an emphatic 5-2 win with Oskar Tomczynski, Dylan Aylward and Matej Stepanek scoring one each while Colm Roche bagged a brace on his debut for Celtic. Indeed, even the two Rovers' goals were scored by one of our own, Oskar Tomczynski, a most unusual hat trick by any standards.
- U11s made their exit from the Cup after a thrilling encounter with Gorey Rangers on a 5-3 score line. Rory O'Connor scored two with Eryk Borowiec claiming his first goal for the club. Two unfortunate own goals proved the difference between these two great rivals on this occasion.
- U12s scraped through to the second round of the Cup with an uninspiring 2-1 victory at home over a game Bunclody side. Arran Kinsella and Joseph Lawal were on the mark in this match with only a stunning save from Dean Bookle preventing the home side being brought to extra time.
- U13s entertained a fancied Courtown Hibs in the Cup and despite playing all the football, two sucker punches in either half forced the game all the way to penalties where the visitors emerged victorious after a 2-2 draw. Eoin Burke scored both Celtic goals.
- U14s played a match that could have proved a huge banana skin as they had to face Gorey Celtic without the influential Thomas O'Connor and David O'Connor. Two early goals from Eoin Burke and David Lawal settled the home side and they comfortably saw out the remainder of the game to progress to the next round of the Cup on a 2-0 score line.
- U15s - The formbook held true when our 15s travelled to face a formidable Gorey Rangers side who have dominated the Wexford and District League. Without ever coming near their full potential, Celtic had to face the long journey home after a 3-0 loss.
- U16s cruised into the second round of the Cup with a comfortable 3-0 victory over Camolin Celtic at the north Wexford venue. Conor Hennessy bagged two goals in this game with Dylan Wickham also on the score sheet.

January Men's Results and Updates

Due to the poor weather, January was a bleak month for soccer matches throughout the county. This will undoubtedly mean a back log of fixtures later in the season but perhaps the cancellations will mean pitches being in better conditions when the games do go ahead. At least all three of the men's team did manage to play one or more games each in January.

The premier team opened their new year with a trip away to Park Hotspur in Wexford and came away with a disappointing 3-3 draw. Next up they played a league game away to Forth Celtic and ran out relieved 2-1 winners on the day. Paul Phelan opened the scoring from the penalty spot and then grabbed a winner in the last minute. The only sour note was a red card for Diarmuid Roche late on for a second booking.

Our second team also played two games in January with their first game resulting in a 2-1 loss at home to Wexford Bohs, and followed this up with an exit from the Neill O'Sullivan cup losing out in the 1st round 4-2 away to Rosslare Rangers.

Our third team only had one game go ahead in January and this resulted in a 2-0 away to Tombrack in league to keep their 100% winning rate going and remain top of their league. Mark Lee scored both of the goals in either half with the second coming from the penalty spot.

The youths also had one game go ahead earlier in the month and it was in the first round of the Wexford Youth Cup. For the lads it may have been better if it didn't go ahead as the game was played in North End's second pitch in Drinagh and the terrible condition of it didn't allow either team to play any football. Still this team should have been good enough to progress but things just didn't go right on the day and it meant Celtic exiting the cup on a 2-1 score line. Eoin Rhodes scored the Celtic goal on the day.
